

Network Movement for Democracy and Human Rights (NMDHR)

Head Office:

148 Circular Road, Freetown,
Sierra Leone.

Regional Office:

87 Pendembu Road, Kailahun
District, Eastern Province,
Sierra Leone

Tel:

+23276698279/+23276410137

+23277543865/+23278387047

Email: nmdhr1@gmail.com

Website: www.nmdhr.org

ABOUT US!!!

VISION STATEMENT

NMDHR is committed to positioning itself as the unquestionably preeminent and proactive National NGO for the promotion and protection of human rights and democratic values for sustainable development.

This shall entail information dissemination, and community education on human rights, good governance and democracy throughout Sierra Leone.

MISSION STATEMENT

Network Movement for Democracy and Human Rights is a Non-Governmental Civil Society and Human Rights Organization. We promote Human Rights and Governance issues through advocacy, lobby and campaigns to change people's participation in Governance so that development and peace can take place.

CORE VALUES

The NMDHR demonstrate the following values:

- 1. Respect for gender: Exercise indiscriminate respect to all humans irrespective of age/sex and accord equal opportunity to all.
- 2. Accountable & Transparent: Embracing honesty/open and sincere in explaining our actions and keep up to expectations
- 3. Inclusiveness: Ensures diversity
- 4. Tolerant/Accommodative: Accommodative and positively collaborating in the performance of assigned duties
- 5. Professionalism: Encompassing discipline, dependability, team spirit, expertise and integrity
- 6. Committed: Acceptance of responsibilities and willingness for timely performance of assigned duties
- 7. Collaboration, truthfulness: Work in partnership to avoid duplication of efforts open and reliable with team spirit.

Core Programme Areas

1) Governance and Participation

2) Gender & Women Health

3) Child Protection

Our competencies/Strengths

We are recognized by our Partners, and we have a presence (Regional office) in target communities and we use community friendly approach – at effective cost approach, to deliver quality programmes (accountable, inclusive) facilitated by trained and experienced personnel in governance, participation, and human rights. We have good working relationship with our Partners and are familiar with the culture and practices of the communities we work with.

RECENT AND PAST NEWS & EVENTS

Community members during the Open Society Initiatives for West Africa (OSIWA) funded project launching in four (4) Chiefdoms in Kailahun District, Eastern Province in Sierra Leone. Project title: Community monitoring on accountable and effective service delivery on the health sector.

Community members during the OSIWA project launching in four Chiefdoms in Kailahun District. Project title: Community monitoring on accountable and effective service delivery on the health sector

Participants at the Access to Security and Justice Programme (ASJP/DFID) funded project in Tonkolili District in 2014. Activity title: Advocacy training for community based organizations to monitor and hold informal justice institutions accountable.

Baseline survey report launching in Kailahun District, Curtsy of OSIWA funded project in 2017.